

Mike,

I would like to take this opportunity to again thank you for assisting me with my first home purchase.

I closed on my home just over a year ago now and things are going great. You helped secure me a quality mortgage on a great house that I could afford comfortably. From the first day I spoke with you, you were honest and gave me accurate information. You made me aware of all my different mortgage options and explained the positives and negatives of each. You did not attempt to hide or cover up any information that could hurt me financially in the future. Closing was a breeze and there was nothing brought to the table that you did not already make me aware of.

I would refer you to anyone looking to secure a mortgage without any headaches. When I am in the market for my next piece of property, you will be the one guiding me through it again.

Once more, thank you.

Sincerely,

John Perkins
