

Testimony

I started talking to Mike Vrba in October of 2006, after I was referred to him by a realtor who was going to sell our house. From the beginning, Mike was very helpful and understanding of our situation. As the months went by, our plan changed from buying to refinancing. Through those eight months, Mike always kept in contact with us either through phone or by email to see if he could be of service. He was always polite and explained everything that we had questions about. He always made sure that we understood what we were going through, and he always made time to talk and go over any questions that we had. Mike was very punctual about getting back to us when he said he would. Needless to say, Mike was very accommodating in all our dealings with him. I would hold no reservation in recommending his services to anybody!

Sincerely,
